

Welcome!

Thank you for your interest in this six-week Let's Be Honest study series.

We'll begin the study the first week of January 2011. Your "homework" for the first class will be to listen to the message at weekend worship on January 1st and 2nd. In each week of the study guide, you'll find a section to take notes during the message. You'll find these notes helpful during your small group time, so make sure to use this section of the guide!

If you have to miss one of the worship services, you can listen to the message online at www.echristchurch.org/messages or watch the message video at www.echristchurch.org/video.

For each of the weekly topics, there is a short character study and information about the issue being discussed that week. You will find five daily readings with questions to consider. You have the sixth day "off" from the study— you choose which day this will be, to best fit your schedule. The seventh day will usually be the day you attend church, or have your small group meeting.

If you have any questions or concerns during this study, don't hesitate to contact us. We are here for you!

May God bless you and yours abundantly, this day and always,

 your Pastors

Please note that the character studies in this guide are fictional, and any resemblance to persons living or dead is purely coincidental.
